Through the years, Aloha exhibited the grace and love of her Lord to everyone with whom she connected. Whether teaching Sunday School, organizing church ministries, leading women's groups, or relating to Parmly staff, her grateful spirit was evident as she embodied her favorite verse from Nehemiah 8:10 ... "The joy of the Lord is your strength."

Autumn

There comes a time in each returning year,
I think it is rest,
though some may call it drear,
It brings to me
a long desired relief
From all worries, cares,
and grief.
The leaves no longer
on the trees do stay,
But flutter down
and fall on the way
And so in time
all of our griefs and care,
Will fall and leave us
with no more woe to bear.
